RBI Austin, an affiliate of Major League Baseball's Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities program, is a nonprofit organization in Austin, Texas providing baseball and softball leagues, clinics, family benevolence support, and Christian-based mentoring to underserved youth and communities.

RBI Austin began as a grassroots summer baseball team of 15 East Austin kids in 2009 and has grown to 1,670 kids ages 4-18 in 2024. RBI Austin, a mentoring program that leverages baseball and softball to address the fatherless crisis in East Austin, has plans for reaching more kids in 2025 and beyond.

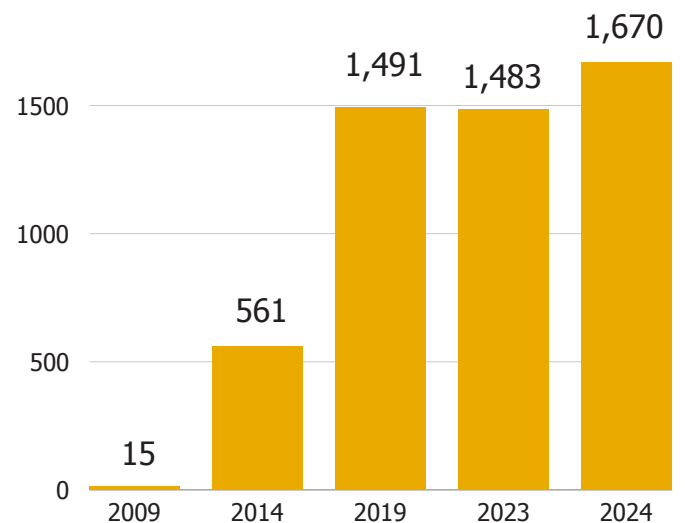

Over the years and with a growing number of kids and families involved, the mission remains the same: to engage and develop inner-city Austin youth athletically, academically, and spiritually, empowering them to lead the transformation of their communities.
